Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. 1116(1)(B).

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245 filing fee

$75 administrative fee

+ $15 trustee surcharge

$335 total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

ATTORNEY CLIENT BASE REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT FOR CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY RELATED SERVICES

This Representation Agreement (“Agreement”) is executed between Upright Law LLC (“Firm”) and the undersigned (“Client” or “Debtor”), collectively the “Parties”. (Unless the context otherwise clearly indicates, words used in the singular include the plural and the plural includes the singular.) The undersigned Partner of Firm has authorized Firm to affix Partner’s digital signature upon this Agreement. Agreement is subject to Partner’s further review and approval after consultation with Client. This Agreement contemplates bankruptcy-related services (“Bankruptcy Services” or “Services”) ONLY and no other services. Firm is not hired to represent Client in any other legal proceedings. Firm will NOT take any action outside of Services described in this Representation Agreement. Client acknowledges that no creditor actions, including letters, utility shut-off’s, garnishments, repossessions, taxing authority’s actions, or foreclosure sales will be stopped until the legal fee is paid in full and the petition is filed. Client is responsible for informing Firm of any critical dates or notices including foreclosure sale dates, repossession notices or other legal actions.

1. Type of Bankruptcy Representation and Venue. Client hires Firm (and not any specific attorney/staff member) to represent Client for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Services. This Agreement is subject to Client residing in Client’s current county of residence for the duration of the Services. If Client determines at a later date that Client desires to file or convert to a Chapter 13, the parties shall execute a new representation agreement. This Agreement does not include representation in any objection to discharge, audit, adversary proceeding, or any contested matter. Firm will require another representation agreement if Firm agrees to represent Client in any other matter.

2. Type of Representation Agreement. Client hires Firm under a Representation Agreement known as a “FLAT-FEE AGREEMENT” whereby Firm agrees to provide Services for a fixed amount. A portion of the Fees paid under this FLAT-FEE AGREEMENT are refundable if not earned as described below. Subject to the provisions herein regarding the Firm’s ability to draw fees as earned, the Firm is hired on a Flat-Fee basis and not on an hourly basis, unless otherwise indicated in this Agreement, and is therefore NOT charging its usual fee of $395.00 per hour for attorney time and $125.00 for paraprofessional time. Client understands that before Client verbally agreed to hire Firm, Firm provided legal services to Client through the Financial Empowerment Session (FES), and that as soon as Client signs this written Agreement with Firm, Firm will re-review all intake documents and Client information, set up payment plans in Firm’s case management system, and perform other administrative tasks associated with opening Client’s file. If Client terminates Firm at any time before conclusion of this representation, Firm will have earned fees in this matter. Client agrees that Client owes fees for any pre-termination services and that the value of the services will be computed based on the lawyer and paraprofessional time that has been expended at Firm’s normal hourly rates. In conjunction with termination, Client may request an accounting of services provided and a refund of any unearned portion of the fee. Alternatively, Client may elect to take advantage of Firm’s No Questions Asked Refund Policy (“NQA Refund Policy”). Under the NQA Refund Policy, if Client terminates Firm’s services within 24 hours of a verbal hire, no fees will be charged to Client and any fees paid by Client before termination will be refunded; if Client terminates the Firm more than 24 hours but less than 72 hours after verbal hire, Firm will charge Client a $100 processing fee and will refund 75% of any fees paid by Client as of the time of termination; or if Client terminates Firm more than 72 hours but less than one week after verbal hire, Firm will charge Client a $100 processing fee and will refund 50% of any fees paid by Client as of the time of termination. Firm may terminate at will, but ordinarily does not terminate unless Firm believes that Client has acted abusively toward Firm staff, failed to cooperate with Firm in completing Client's case, has lied to Firm, or is involved in the commission of a crime. If such termination by Firm occurs after Client's case is filed with the court, the termination will be effective upon Firm's motion requesting withdrawal and a corresponding order entered by the court. Because this is a Flat-Fee representation, Client will not receive a monthly billing of time spent on this matter. Fees will be placed into Firm's general expense/operating account and will NOT be placed into any Firm IOLTA client trust fund account, or any other type of Trust or Escrow account unless required by the rules of the jurisdiction in which Client's matter will be filed. The Flat-Fee is paid by Client to the Firm in order to ensure Firm's commitment of availability for a time period, representation for Services, assumption of Professional Responsibility, and consultation. The amount of the Flat-Fee is based upon the information provided by Client at the consultation and in the information intake sheet and may be adjusted upward by several factors including (i) required services beyond the Bankruptcy Services defined herein, (ii) undisclosed assets, income, debts, transfers and preferences, (iii) failure to pay all the fees and costs within the prescribed time; (iv) creditors exceeding 25 in number, or; (v) additional unsecured debt 20% in excess of amounts indicated by Client at the consultation charged at two and one half (2.5%) of the additional unsecured debt. The Representation Fee is based on the following assumptions: (a) the Client has provided the Firm with complete and accurate information and fully disclosed all financial information to Firm; (b) the Client's circumstances, particularly the Client's current monthly income does not substantially change prior to the filing of the petition; (c) Client provides all requested documents within 15 days of the date of this Agreement or Firm's later request for additional documents. Client acknowledges that Client has 60 days from Client's final payment of Fees to turn in all requested documents or will be charged an additional Fee of $375.00 and that any amounts on deposit with Firm to pay filing fees or other costs will be applied by Firm toward that $375.00 Fee. No Chapter 7 petition will be filed until all Fees and costs are paid in full and Client provides all documents. Firm assumes no responsibility for any changes in laws should Client delay the filing by not paying quickly and providing required documentation.

3. Payment Term. The fee must be paid in full within 6 months from the date of this Agreement, or by the last scheduled payment date, whichever is later, after which the terms of this agreement terminate with no further notice or, subject to paragraph 5 below, obligations due from either party, except that parties can renegotiate terms upon which representation will continue. Client authorizes Firm to make changes to any payment schedule and take payments with verbal authorization.

4. Virtual Representation. Client understands and agrees that Firm typically represents its clients virtually, meaning primarily through means of telephonic and digital (online) communication. Client agrees that usually, Client's communication with the Firm will not be face to face at a physical office, but rather through email, over the phone or through a virtual meeting room that Client accesses through Client's computer or telephone. Client has elected to use the Firm, in part, because the Firm offers this service and Client finds this service to be more efficient and convenient. Client also understands that court rules within Client's local jurisdiction may require Client to sign Client's final documents in the presence of the lawyer. For this and any other reason Client will travel to lawyer's office at a mutually agreeable meeting time. At Client's request, Client has the right to arrange a meeting with Client's attorney at lawyer's local office or a location and time mutually agreeable by lawyer and Client.

5. Guarantee - Refund Policy. Firm offers a 100% Money Back Guarantee that if the courts do not accept your bankruptcy filing because of an error on our part, we will refund 100% of your money, including the filing fee. The guarantee covers everything that the Firm produces in order to successfully complete a case. We guarantee that it will be done in a manner that is accepted for filing with the bankruptcy clerk's office. Exceptions: there may be reasons beyond our control that may cause a case to be dismissed or cause the result to be different than what Firm represented was the likely outcome. Therefore, the 100% Money-Back Guarantee does not guarantee: a) that you will receive a discharge; b) that you will receive a discharge of all debts or of any particular debt; c) that you will successfully complete all of your obligations including accurate disclosure of debts and assets, completing your forms and courses on time and attending your 341 meeting as scheduled; d) that you will not lose assets in Chapter 7; or e) that you will not encounter challenges of any kind to your bankruptcy case. Except as provided in this paragraph and in section 2 above, all fees forwarded and paid to Firm constitute earned compensation upon receipt by Firm and become property of the Firm and Firm is not obligated to refund any portion to Client regardless of when or in what manner this matter may be concluded, or this agreement terminated.

6. Due Diligence. Firm may investigate/verify the information provided by Client via third-party sources and is authorized to amend information provided by Client as a result of its investigation. Firm may order (at Client's expense), or request Client order, due diligence documentation/items, including but not limited to appraisals, real estate and auto valuations, credit checks, tax transcripts, asset searches and anything Firm deems appropriate to confirm Client information. If not provided by Client within 30 days of request, or at Client's request, Firm, at its discretion is authorized to utilize certain due diligence products and pass through to Client the cost of such products plus a reasonable administrative fee to compensate Firm for the time to order and process such documents.

7. Debtor's Obligations to Pay Designated Costs/Fees/Due Diligence. In addition to the fee the Client shall be obligated to obtain/pay for the following items: (a) Pre-filing consumer credit counseling; (b) post-filing debtor education instructional course; (c) tax transcripts; (d) public record, asset/lien searches; (e) copies of judgments, deeds, deeds of trust, title certificates, court papers, county tax records, appraisals, broker price opinions (BPO), auto valuations, and other similar documents; (f) any other records or statements not produced by Client; (g) administrative costs, e.g., postage, parking, copies, gas limited to a Flat-Fee of $100; (i) court costs related to the potential filing of a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case (currently $335 as of 6/1/14); and (j) cost of amended schedules ($30.00).

8. Bankruptcy Services further defined. The Services included in the Agreement are (a) analyzing the Client's financial situation and advising and assisting the Client in determining whether to file a petition under the Bankruptcy Code; (b) when applicable, filing the debtor's payment advices together with the Payment Advice Form or cover sheet; (c) providing consultation to enable the Client to make an informed decision about filing Chapter 7; (d) advising Client of all available exemptions; (e) assisting the Client in complying with all of the requirements imposed by the Bankruptcy Laws and Rules, (f) preparing and filing the petition, all required lists, schedules and statements, as well as any amendments that may be necessary or appropriate; (h) filing the certificate required from the individual debtor from an approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency for pre- petition credit counseling; (i) drafting and mailing notice to creditors; (j) notifying Client of, preparing Client for, and attending the Section 341 meeting of creditors; (k) assisting Client in complying with information requests by the Bankruptcy Trustee, the Court, or other parties; (l) communicating with all parties involved in the case; (m) reviewing of Bankruptcy Petition and Schedules; (n) sending any pre-filing correspondence; (o) calculating Current Monthly Income to determine if any presumption of abuse would arise under the bankruptcy code; and (p) filing the debtor's certification of completion of instructional course concerning financial management. Client has received a free consultation without any obligation to hire Firm. Client agrees that the consultation time is now part of the Bankruptcy Services. As to subsection (j) of this section, Debtor expressly authorizes Firm to designate counsel to appear on Client's behalf at creditor meetings and hearings, at no additional cost to Client.

9. Additional or Non-Base Legal Services POST-PETITION. Legal services which are beyond those contemplated in the Agreement will be provided by Attorney POST PETITION at an additional fee, including but not limited to representing Client in: (a) discharge proceedings, including those related to student loans, taxes or undue hardships (hourly); (b) motions for relief from, or continuation, defense or enforcement of the Automatic Stay (hourly); (c) motions to redeem personal property ($600.00); (d) rule 2004 examinations (hourly); (e) motions to avoid liens/judgments($500.00); (f) contested matters or adversary proceedings (hourly); (g) contested matters regarding Client's claim of exempt property (hourly); (h) amend any list, schedule, statement, and/or other document required to be filed with the petition as may be necessary or appropriate based on any omission by Client (hourly); (i) motions to continue the 341 meeting of creditors and/or appearing for a continued 341 hearing due to Client's failure to appear ($150.00); (j) motions or adversary complaints to abandon/refinance/sell/purchase property (hourly); (k) assisting in carrying out the Debtor's Statement of Intentions (hourly); (l) monitoring an "asset case" (hourly); (m) re-opening a bankruptcy case to submit post-filing proof of pre-discharge counseling ($355); (n) issues that arise that are not specifically listed in the Agreement (hourly). For such non-base services, you will be charged $395.00 per hour for attorney time and $125/hour for paraprofessional time billed in 6-minute minimum increments, however, the Firm will be entitled to contingency fee of 25% of garnishment/wage assignment recovery. Client hereby authorizes Firm, but does not require it, to investigate for the existence of violations of the automatic stay, the discharge injunction, or for breach of any state/federal consumer protection statutes or bankruptcy code violations, and to prosecute them with or without the assistance designated counsel as Firm deems necessary to pursue such claims. If Client decides with Firm to bring an individual Lawsuit then, in the event of a recovery through settlement or judgment, the fee will be calculated by applying the greater of: a) a multiple of Firm's usual hourly rates at the time of the Recovery, times the actual hours expended on this matter, or; b) $1750 of the first $2000 in total Recovery, plus 20% of the next $3000 of Recovery, plus 30% of the next $5000 of Recovery, plus 40% of the next $15,000 of Recovery, plus 50% of the Recovery in excess of $25,000, or; c) in the event Firm successfully pursues an FDCPA or TCPA claim, Client shall receive no less than $250. If Firm loses a lawsuit brought on Client's behalf, then Client will not be obligated to pay a fee or costs.

10. Reaffirmation Agreements. Firm is hired to negotiate, review, and execute any re-affirmation agreements with Client's creditors and to appear at any reaffirmation hearings. Where permissible, such services are considered Non-Base Services and Firm will charge $150.00 per signed reaffirmation. In various jurisdictions, services for reaffirmation agreements may not be excluded in Firm's limited scope representation agreement, in which case the Firm will waive the $150.00 fee. Client understands creditors are not obligated to offer reaffirmation agreements. Unless Client obtains a reaffirmation agreement from creditor and contacts Firm to negotiate and/or file a reaffirmation agreement signed by BOTH creditor and Client, Client and Firm shall presume no reaffirmation agreement exists or was requested by Client. Client should continue to make payments on items Client desires to reaffirm, obtain an executed reaffirmation agreement, or risk losing said items. Client agrees the Firm has no obligation to execute any reaffirmation agreement and reserves the right NOT to sign/execute any reaffirmation agreement on behalf of Client, particularly if in the Firm's reasonable judgment, executing such agreement would not be in the best interest of Client.

11. Receipt and Acknowledgement of Mandatory Notices and Disclosures. The Bankruptcy Code as amended effective 10/17/2005 requires that Firm provide mandatory notices and disclosures to Client. Client acknowledges that Client has received, read, and understands the two documents titled Statement Mandated by Section 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Notice to Clients Who Contemplate filing Bankruptcy. Such disclosures are acknowledged by Client and are incorporated by reference and made part of this Agreement

12. Client Representations of Good Faith and to Firm. Client attests and affirms that they have not given Firm any false or misleading information or omitted any information from Firm. If Client is making payment arrangements, Client agrees to "auto-pay" via debit card or ACH from a checking account set up with Firm's billing department as part of Firm's willingness to take payments and any payments sent by check may be converted and processed by Firm as an ACH or "V-Check" transaction.

13. NSF Checks. Client agrees to pay a $50.00 for dishonored checks plus fees/costs associated with collection, thereof, and any other balance due on this account, including but not limited to attorney fees and court costs, with a minimum fee of $500.00 for additional attorney fees.

14. Retention and Disposition of Records. Firm maintains digital files indefinitely, but may destroy all original documents provided by Client immediately and reserves the right to destroy any digital file 10 years starting from the date the case is closed. Firm encourages Client to keep and maintain copies of all bankruptcy-related matters. Client may request a copy of the file or any documents within the file by sending a written request. A DEBT RELIEF AGENCY, DISCLOSURES TO AN ASSISTED PERSON IN RELATION TO
A BANKRUPTCY CONSULTATION

Please note this form is mandated by statute, it may or may not correctly make you understand the full extend of the laws related to filing bankruptcy.

Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a Debt Relief Agency to provide an assisted person with the following information:

RULES FOR FILING BANKRUPTCY
Notice required under 11 U.S.C. Section 527(a)

If you do not follow these rules you could be subject to Criminal Sanctions including JAIL and FINES. If you do not follow these rules your case will be dismissed and you may not be able to re-file your case.

Rule #1 – The information you give, or are required to give, to an attorney, a staff member of the law firm, the Bankruptcy Trustee, or the Bankruptcy Court that is provided with your petition, or that is required to be provided with your petition, and during the case must be complete, accurate, and truthful, at all times, before filing and thereafter.

Rule #2 – Everything you own (all assets) and every debt you owe including family members (all liabilities) must be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence this case. Bankruptcy is not a “pick and choose” proceeding. You do not leave some debts in and leave some debts out. Everything must be included and disclosed. You must value each item you own at the rate it would cost you to replace the item with one of the same condition, age, and usefulness and you are required to undertake a reasonable inquiry to establish such value.

Rule #3 – You will be required to complete a current monthly budget. This will be performed with your attorney. This budget will be based on your Current Monthly Income and your regular monthly expenses. This Current Monthly Income is more than just that paid to you by your employer and will include any income received in the past 6 months commencing with the first full month before your bankruptcy filing. This could include government assistance, social security, unemployment, or side jobs or any other sources. The regular expense should be as close as possible and should be based on a reasonable inquiry which you are required to undertake.

Rule #4 – The Bankruptcy Code requires you to perform certain tasks including filing certain documents with the Court. Your attorney will notify you of the need and time limits for performing these tasks. If you fail to meet these deadlines your case will automatically be dismissed and you may be barred from re-filing a case.

All of the information you provide will be subject to audit by the United States Department of Justice, through the United States Attorney and the United States Trustee. If you fail to provide this information your case may be dismissed and you may be sanctioned by the Court. If you act dishonestly you may be subject to criminal sanctions as well.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES
FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

- If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you should be advised that you can represent yourself in all matters connected with the bankruptcy.
- If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you should be advised that you can hire an attorney to represent you.
- If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you should be advised that in some areas you may hire a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney.

THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. ASK TO SEE THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU HIRE AN ATTORNEY.

Although bankruptcy cases can be complex, many of the procedures and cases are routine. Before filing a bankruptcy case, you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most beneficial to you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations.

To file a bankruptcy case, documents called Petition, Schedules, and Statement of Financial Affairs, and in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court.

Once your case is filed, you will have to attend a first meeting of creditors where you will be questioned under oath by a court official called a "trustee." At this meeting you may also be questioned by your creditors.

If you chose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you chose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a Federal Bankruptcy Judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court. BE AWARE- Only an attorney can give you legal advice and can represent you in court. Bankruptcy petition preparers may not give you legal advice or represent you in Court or otherwise.

CLIENT INSTRUCTIONS
Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 527(c)

DEFINITIONS

1. Replacement Value – Certain sections of the Bankruptcy Code will require you to determine the value of your personal and real property. We will provide you assistance with this calculation but we are required under law to provide a written explanation of this term. For personal, family and household purposes the replacement value is the value a retail merchant selling the item would charge considering the age and condition of the item. The Code does not define the term “retail merchant.”

Example: Assume that you have a DVD player that is 3 years old. You have been using the DVD player regularly and it works. The replacement value for this item would be what a used store or flea market would price the item. In doing this calculation, you do not have to be precise, just reasonable. The Firm will assist you with any inquiries as to valuing your household items.

2. Current Monthly Income – Under certain sections of the Bankruptcy Code you will be required to calculate your Current Monthly Income. This is more than what you receive every time you get a pay check. This includes all income you have received over the last 6 months divided by 6. This means that if you lost your job last month your total income for that month could be almost zero. This income even includes income that is not taxable. This calculation does not take into account many government benefits including social security.

3. Calculations – If you file a Chapter 13 plan you will be required to submit a budget that calculates disposable income left over when you deduct your monthly expenses from your monthly income. These expenses do not include your payments on unsecured debts. An attorney will assist you with these calculations. If your Current Monthly Income is higher than the State Median Income for your household size you will be subject to a Means Test. This Means Test adds up your total expenses as defined by the Bankruptcy Code and other deductions including regular charitable donations (up to 15% of your income), school expenses, payments on 401(k)/IRA loans, and health insurance. If you are subject to this calculation an attorney will help you perform this task.

4. Creditor Matrix – If you file a Chapter 13 case, you may be required to prepare and submit a master mailing matrix in a format approved by the Court that includes the names and addresses of all of your creditors. (Many Jurisdictions have now omitted that requirement). The matrix must be in three columns and in alphabetical order. You must also list any persons who have co-signed or guaranteed loans for you. In addition, the law in your jurisdiction may require that you list the following parties even if you owe them no money: the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Revenue of your State, the City or County tax authority in your place of residence, the Office of the United States Attorney, and the Office of the State Department of Justice or Attorney General. All creditors have designated a specific address for the receipt of notices of bankruptcy and in connection therewith you must use the address designated on 2 of the most recent statements received from each creditor within the 90 day period before the filing of your case. If your matrix is not filed in the proper format, your case may be subject to dismissal by the Court.

5. Exemptions – In order to protect your property you will need to claim applicable exemptions provided by State or Federal Law. The Firm will assist and advise you on the proper exemptions to claim for your case.

These rules and disclosures are given as a warning and not as an attempt to scare you from filing bankruptcy. Bankruptcy is a right provided to you under Federal Law. These Rules are only given to prevent people from intentionally abusing this by cheating and being dishonest. This notice is required by law under the Bankruptcy Reform Act enacted by Congress under intense lobbying by the credit industry and should not intimidate you from filing bankruptcy. Our office has assisted thousands of people with filing bankruptcy. Our office has observed that almost all of our clients are honest and hardworking people who, due to circumstances beyond their control, cannot repay their debts.

CLIENT INSTRUCTIONS
Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 342(b)
Types of Bankruptcy

Chapter 7 – Liquidation

(The filing fee for the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court is currently $335.00 as of November 1, 2011, and is subject to change. This does not include attorney fees, due diligence expenses or other costs).

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors who are having financial difficulties and are not able to re-pay their debts.

If your current monthly income is above the State Median Income you will be required to perform a Means Test to determine if you are eligible for this type of bankruptcy relief. If you do not meet the requirements of the Means Test then you may be precluded from filing a Chapter 7 and have the option of converting to Chapter 13 or filing a Chapter 13.

Under Chapter 7 a Trustee takes possession of all your property. You may claim certain property as exempt under State law. You can only exempt the value of property that is not subject to the liens of your creditors. The Trustee then liquidates the non-exempt property and uses the proceeds to pay off your creditors according to priorities of the Bankruptcy Code.

The purpose of filing a Chapter 7 is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, your discharge may be denied by the Court, and the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a discharge, there are some debts that are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for such debts as certain taxes and student loans, alimony and support payments, criminal restitution, and debts for death or personal injury caused by driving while intoxicated with alcohol or drugs.

Under certain circumstances you may be able to keep property that you have purchased subject to a valid security interest. Some of these options include what is called redemption and the renewal or reaffirmation of an existing pre-bankruptcy debt. Your attorney can explain the options that are available to you.

Chapter 13 – Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income

(The filing fee for the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court is currently $310.00 as of November 1, 2011, and is subject to change. This does not include attorney fees, due diligence expenses or other costs).

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with a regular and stable source of income who are temporarily unable to pay their debts but who desire to use their best efforts and good faith to pay them in installments over a period of time subject to the protections afforded by the Chapter 13 rules. You are only eligible for Chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under Chapter 13 you must file a plan with the Court to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings or by the disposition and/or abandonment of certain collateral such as land and motor vehicles. You are protected from your creditors in most case upon the filing of your case but your plan must be approved by the Court before it can take effect.

Under Chapter 13, unlike Chapter 7, you may keep all of your property, both exempt and non-exempt, as long as you continue to make payments under the plan.

After completion of payments under the plan, your debts are discharged except for any domestic support obligations, student loans, and certain taxes, among others.

Chapter 11 – Reorganization

(The filing fee for the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court is currently $1,046.00 as of November 1, 2011, and is subject to change. This does not include attorney fees, due diligence expenses or other costs).

Chapter 11 is designed primarily for the reorganization of businesses but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision for an individual to file a Chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney. Most Chapter 11 cases are simply too expensive for the great majority of consumer debtors. Most individuals are aware of the high profile Chapter 11 cases that have been filed in recent years by many of the commercial airlines.

Chapter 12 – Family Farmer

(The filing fee for the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court is currently $246.00 as of November 1, 2011, and is subject to change. This does not include attorney fees, due diligence expenses or other costs).

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is in many ways similar to a Chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those who whose income arises primarily from a family owned farms or fisheries.

Credit Counseling

Reputable credit counselors can advise you on managing your money and your debts. They may also be able to develop a plan to repay your debts. But, most credit counselors are not reputable and charge high fees and contributions that will cause you to fall deeper into debt. Furthermore, many misrepresent their non-profit status and/or their affiliations with religious or charitable organizations. The Firm, only recommends that a person seek the credit counseling services of a group that has been approved by the United States Trustee Department or the Bankruptcy Administrator.

All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.
